Read F. Scott Fitzgerald's Echoes of the Jazz Age (1931), the lyrics of Brother, Can You Spare a Dime (1931) and Unemployed Workers of Manchester's Our Poverty—Your Responsibility (1932).

Find some information about each text. This may include: its historical location, authorship (with some relevant information about the author), addressees (if they can be identified or conjectured), and references that we should recognize. For example:

Yellow Nineties
First Red Scare
Hays Code
National Hunger March of 1932

Add your personal opinions on points that you consider worth discussing in class. (Try to make specific references to the text.)
