Print this page and write on it in English and in longhand. The purpose is to practice, so write as much as possible!

- 1.1. Watch the video on "Renaissance architecture" and then answer the following questions:
 - a) Describe Leonardo da Vinci's Vitruvian Man. What is the significance of this famous drawing?
 - b) What key features distinguish each of the five architectural orders?
 - c) What experiment is known as Brunelleschi's Peepshow?
- 1.2. List and describe the defining characteristics of:
 - a) materials used in architecture;
 - b) architectural styles;
 - c) your top ten historical buildings in the world.
- 1.3. Choose a particular building that calls your attention and find some further information about it.
- 1.4. Outline Kasia Mikoluk's seven principles of communication.
- 1.5. Start a glossary on Art History with the technical terms you find in the videos and texts. Include the following fields: English term, Spanish equivalent, definition, and, where appropriate, related hyperlinks, synonyms and antonyms. You may work in groups (max. 3 members) and advance at a rate of some 35-50 new words per week. By the end of the semester, when you hand in your glossary, it should include some 420-600 words. Write down in the table below the terms that you have added this week:
