Remember: Quantity is more important than quality. Write as much as possible. Practice every day!

- 14.1. Watch the video "The style of ancient Egyptian art."
 - a) Is the Egyptian representation of the body naturalistic or abstract? According to the video, what cultural reasons explain that choice?
 - b) What is the significance of the great temple of Karnak? Briefly describe its main parts.
 - c) Discuss the major similarities and differences between Greek and Roman art.
 - d) List the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. What was peculiar about each of them? How many of them have survived?
 - e) Comment on the terracotta warriors and what they tell us about ancient Chinese art.
- 14.2. Write a simplified timeline of ancient art. Then choose a particular work that calls your attention and find some further information about it.
- 14.3. Watch the video "Learn how to speed read: best speed reading techniques." Outline the tips it gives. Also find some information about the history of the familiar monument it mentions, the Statue of Liberty.
- 14.4. Summarize Tim Ferriss's "Scientific speed reading: how to read 300% faster in 20 minutes." Determine your reading speed before and after you practice his two techniques on some reading material from your other courses.
- 14.5. By the end of this week, your glossary should be enlarged in 35-50 words. (It should contain 70-100 new words.)
