Keep reviewing the videos of the first topics. Practice makes perfect.

3.1. Watch the video “The learning environment as the third teacher.”

a) Find information on the role of play in children’s learning.

b) List and describe the eight basic learning centers in the classrooms of American elementary schools.

3.2. Read Elizabeth Mulvahill’s “Anchor charts 101: why and how to use them.”

a) Explain what they are. Gather suggestions on how to use them in class.

b) Authors like Thomas Dittl dislike anchor charts. What are their objections? Do you agree?

3.3. Discuss what makes a good learning environment.

3.4. Watch the video “How to create an awesome PowerPoint presentation.” Do you agree with the advice it gives? Why? Can you think of other tips for the design of presentation slides? Find a website that provides useful guidance.

3.5. Chris Thomas proposes “Five memorable keys steps to ensure a good presentation.”

a) Why does he call them “memorable”?

b) Do you use similar techniques to memorize things? Give examples.

c) Write the outline of the video.

3.6. Watch the video “Present like Steve Jobs.”

a) Write the outline of the video.

b) Does Carmine Gallo follow his own advice? Explain.

3.7. In your opinion, which aspects covered in Donald Clark’s article “Presentations” are the most important in order to make your presentations more engaging?

3.8. By the end of this week your glossary should already have 210 terms.
