- 8.1. Read William Faulkner's "Barn Burning" (1939). Look up the words you don't know and try to explain any references and allusions in the text.
- 8.2. Outline the most significant background information for the interpretation of the text, such as historical location, authorship (with some relevant information about the author) or addressees (if they can be identified or conjectured).
- 8.3. Analyze the following aspects:
 - a) setting;
 - b) narrative point of view;
 - c) chronological structure of the story;
 - d) main character's quest;
 - e) past and history;
 - f) society and class.
- 8.4. Add your personal opinions on points that you consider worth discussing in class. (Try to make specific references to the text. Show that you have actually read it.)
