"We learn to do by doing." Spencer W. Kimball.

7.1. Watch the video "A glimpse of teenage life in ancient Rome."

a) Which were the chief beliefs and practices of Roman religion before Christianity?

b) Briefly describe the family structure and social hierarchy in ancient Rome.

c) The video (35) mentions England in A.D. 73. Isn't it a little anachronistic? Explain.

7.2. Write a simplified timeline of the ancient world. Then choose a particular event that calls your attention and find some further information about it.

7.3. Watch the video "Speaking in tongues: The history of language."

a) Summarize the main theories about the origin of language.

b) "Genetically, there's an increasing evidence that the Khoisan people are the oldest people" (18). Elaborate on this statement.

c) The history of the English language is traditionally divided into three periods. What characterizes each of them?

7.4. Watch the video "Plagiarism: Lesson one."

a) List and describe different ways a researcher can commit plagiarism.

b) Listen to some examples of alleged plagiarism in music and compare them with their supposed sources. How similar are they? Which cases are clear and which ones are not so convincing? Justify your answers.

c) Plagiarism in art, also known as visual plagiarism, ranges from stolen ideas to blatant copies. Look for some interesting cases and discuss them.

d) What rights does a copyright holder have? Do they have a time limit? Comment on the peculiar case of Peter Pan's copyright.

7.5. By the end of this week your glossary should already have 245-350 terms.
