Keep reviewing the videos of the first topics. Practice makes perfect.

3.1. Watch the video “The learning environment as the third teacher.”

a) Find information on the role of play in children’s learning.

b) List and describe the eight basic learning centers in the classrooms of American elementary schools.

3.2. Read Elizabeth Mulvahill’s “Anchor charts 101: why and how to use them.”

a) Explain what they are. Gather suggestions on how to use them in class.

b) Authors like Thomas Dittl dislike anchor charts. What are their objections? Do you agree?

3.3. Discuss what makes a good learning environment.

3.4. Watch the video “Should I be using Google or the library resources for a paper?”

a) What services do public libraries provide? And what are the main functions of a national library?

b) Explain what the Universal Decimal Classification is and how it works. List the nine main tables. Take a few examples of books from your library and analyse their UDC code.

c) What is Google Scholar? Comment on its main advantages and limitations.

3.5. Watch the video “Introduction to citations.”

a) What is a citation? Explain the difference between in-text citations and full citations.

b) What is the purpose of citations? Is it necessary to document every single idea we present in a paper?

c) Which are the core elements of a citation?

3.6. Compile a short bibliography in APA style. Include at least:

a) a book with one author,

b) a book with two authors,

c) an essay or chapter in a book,

d) an article in a journal,

e) a page on a website,

f) a YouTube video.

3.7. By the end of this week your glossary should already have 210 terms.
